

Alexis Delaney

November 25, 2019

Delaney, Alexis, of Englewood, New Jersey, passed away on November 25, 2019. Loving daughter of Harry and Irene Turpan. Devoted mother of Heather, James and Irene. Caring sister to Hilary and Sandy Turpan. Friend to many, including her special lifelong friend and former husband, Patrick Delaney. Doting grandmother to Hannah, Max, Olivia, Ryan and Brooke. Elegant and compassionate, she brought joy, humor and happiness to all that knew her. A true angel, Alexis spent her life giving to others. Her magic and love will live on.

In lieu of flowers memorial donations in Alexis's name to the Animal Rescue Fund <https://arfhamptons.org/> would be appreciated.

“ I always looked up to Alexis, even when she didn't know who I was. Later we were parents together in the same schools though our children were in different grades. Alexis was very active in the school and I continued to admire her. She was beautiful inside and out.
She unfortunately suffered with pain for many years, but was courageous and still as elegant as she could be. I will always remember her as a woman of grace.
My heartfelt sympathy to all who loved and survived her, mostly her children and grandchildren, nephews, nieces and their children. Just think though, she is Finally resting in peace.

“ My Aunt Alexis was such a HUGE part of my life growing up. There were few things I enjoyed as much as going to Tenafly and spending time with my Aunt Alexis, and the Delaney clan. What an amazingly kind and beautiful person she was, and I feel so lucky to have had her in my life. I will miss you Aunt Alexis xoxo -Stuie

“ I first became friends with Alexis 56 years ago when we were in high school. Even back then Alexis had such an elegant, mature beautiful way about her that made her stand out in any crowd. It's been told that one day she actually stopped traffic while crossing a busy street in NYC. Alexis always made you feel special with her warm smile and hug. She will be missed by many friends and family. My warmest condolences to her family.

“ Alexis was so special to our family. Always giving of herself,. She didn't have a mean bone in her body. She was very close to our Mother, and my Mother considered her a third daughter. Always beautiful inside and out. Alexis had so many attributes. Her style was impeccable, Her taste level was beyond. She was a great mother and we heard she was a fun loving grandmother. She will be missed so much, and always in our thoughts.

I almost forgot, she was a wonderful photographer!

Our most sincere thoughts of beautiful Alexis

“ Nancy and I were grieved to learn of Alexis' untimely death. We came to know Alexis through our mutual, and dear, friend, Lillian Fenster. Alexis was a kind and generous person. We extend our condolences to the members of her family, especially those who we knew personally: her son James, and the members of the Cosgriff clan who we knew from Knockeen.
