“ I loved to sit and talk to Norm about skiing, Buffalo, football, work, and especially what impacted her in her lifetime. I respected her gentle yet confident nature, her independence as a woman, and her love for other people. She was a wonderful matriarch. She was an intuitive and nurturing soul. I am thankful to have known her. Peace, sweet Norma. Robyn Connolly

“ Though they lived adult life in different States, Norma and my mom had a life-long friendship any woman would envy. When young, I sure did. It was a friendship of love, loyalty, mutual respect, and very much fun. Through great example, and some silent planning, Norma and Ida made it their mission to assure their only daughters would become dear friends as well. They did not fail. I'm grateful for the more than 3/4 century of joy Norma brought to mom, the inspiration and guidance she gave to me as I established a career very similar to hers. I'm grateful too for the wonderful stories she would tell, and I'm thankful that, for so many years, we spent at least one evening together during her near-annual trips to Buffalo. But mostly, I'm grateful that she and her best friend helped craft between Tricia and me a wonderful friendship made of beautiful traditions, and very funny tales we will retell each other for decades. Still, we will always miss Norma, and both Peter and I extend our deepest condolences to all the members of her lovely family. Wish we could be with you now. xoxo

“ It was always a wonderful pleasure being around Norma. The stories she shared were priceless and the way she told them made you feel you were there when they happened. She is one very special lady that enriched my life more than she knew. A true natural beauty with grace. I'll always hold her in my heart. My deepest condolences to her family and friends.
