“ Paul was always delightful to be around. We would meet for lunch to discuss the world and he would have a twinkle in his eye since he was so engaged in what was going on. The only problem I would have was keeping up with him walking across the street - he said walking fast kept him young. A fine gentleman has left this world.

“ What a wonderful man! Our family greatly benefitted from Paul's willingness to help our Haworth Community. Paul was willing, Always, to share his expertise with the Haworth Congregational Church, the Haworth Swim Club and our individual family's taxation needs. There were many others, I am sure.....

Our love and special thoughts are with each of his family

“ When I first met Paul, he was 89 years old and still working in the office. Everyday he walked by people he already greets and addresses people by their names. He remembers everybody's name including new employees! Paul was such a friendly and respectful partner, I feel extremely lucky to have met him and influenced by his positivity, kindness and dedication to his career. He will be forever missed and he will keep inspiring all of us!
