“ Richard was one of my instructors in grad school, at the School of Visual Arts, New York City, in 1985. I really learned a lot from him and he was such a nice guy. I saw him and met his wife, gosh it's probably been 20 years ago, at an opening of his show in Naples, Florida. He had a great run ! The Art World has lost a giant. I have no doubt he's having a blast in Heaven now. My sincere sympathies to his family!

“ Great Uncle Richard was an incredibly talented artist, family man and role model. It was little wonder why he was loved by so many. Visiting him and the family as a child always was a memorable joyful experience. He will be missed.

“ When I was a child I had a crush on Uncle Ritchie and told my Mom, his only sister Lillian, that I wanted to marry him when I grew up. Lol. Then in the late 50s he brought his fiance Aunt Sally to Ca. to meet us. I was jealous and sat between them and they laughed. Once I got to know Aunt Sally I loved her too. When I was 16 they asked me to be Godmother to their youngest child , Christine. I flew for the first time by myself to NJ. for the ceremony and the whole occasion was so awesome. There are countless other memories of our family gatherings that I treasure . You will be missed my handsome Uncle. I love you! There is a celebration in heaven as you join your sister, brothers and parents and my late husband of 43 yrs. , Lorin, and cousin Darlene. Till we meet again....XO

“ "But the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them. In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died, and their departure was thought to be a disaster, and their going from us to be their destruction; but they are at peace. For though in the sight of others they were punished, their hope is full of immortality. Those who trust in him will understand truth, and the faithful will abide with him in love, because grace and mercy are upon his holy ones, and he watches over his elect." - Wisdom 3:1-4,9

He loved and was loved by many. A kind man who will not be forgotten. What a precious gift to my family he was. Eternal rest grant unto Richard, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace. Amen.

With Love,
Clara Kay

“ My family will cherish all memories visiting Richard Anuszkiewicz and his family beginning in 1989. The pictures are from 2007 when my mom Eugenia Pastuszak was visiting. Richard's father and Eugenia's mother were brother and sister. Richard was wonderful host and very talented hardworking artist. We will miss Richard, until we will meet again

“ Had a lot of fun visiting you with my parents back in the 60's, 70's and 80's. You always put family first and were a creative inspiration and the “rock star” artist of our family. When I got married and had kids, they loved you too. We always had a lot of fun seeing you and family. Thanks for always being there.

Sure going to miss you our sweet Uncle Richie. - Doug, Anne, Lilly, Clara, and Rosemary Kay - Columbus, OH
